C. Causes of Action (You may attach additional pages alleging other causes of action and facts supporting them if necessary. Make copies of page 5 and rename them pages 5A, 5B, etc. and rename the claims, "Claim 4," "Claim 5, etc.").

Claim 1: On or about August of 2013 - August of 2019, my civil right to

due Process, equal Protection, cruel & unusual punishment, illegal Search & Seizure (due process, freedom of religion, free speech, freedom of association and/or assembly, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc. List only one violation.)

was violated by The Alaska Parole Board

(Name of the specific Defendant who violated this right)

Supporting Facts (Briefly describe facts you consider important to Claim 1. State what happened briefly and clearly, in your own words. Do not cite legal authority or argument. Describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Claim 1.):

without legal competent jurisdiction the parole board usurped their authority over Goodtime credits awarded to Mr. Hanny for time awarded - specifically and legally - to him for good behaviour in prison. Furthermore, the parole board extended a judicielly given sentence beyond its maximum term by nearly 6 years, and unlaw fully entered my home and seised mine and other non-probationers property.

Claim 2: On or about August of 2013-2019, my civil right to

due process; equal protection; cruel & unusual punishment

(due process, freedom of religion, free speech, freedom of association and/or assembly, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc. List only one violation.)

was violated by The Alaska Department of Corrections

(Name of the specific Defendant who violated this right)

Supporting Facts (Briefly describe facts you consider important to Claim 2. State what happened briefly and clearly, in your own words. Do not cite legal authority or argument. Describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Claim 2.):

The Alaska Dept. of Corrections, in violation of Alaska statutory law, Turned my good time credits over to the Alaska Parole Board and illegally detained me beyond my judicially given sentence by ignoring statutory law and the sentence handed down by the Alaska Judicial system.

My sentence and its legal duration were ignored and I was allowed to be imprisoned illegally by the Alaska Parole Board.

Claim 3: On or about August of 2013-2019, my civil right to

due process; equal protection; cruel and unusual Punishment

(due process, freedom of religion, free speech, freedom of association and/or assembly, freedom from cruel and unusual punishment, etc. List only one violation.)

was violated by The Alaska Court System

(Name of the specific Defendant who violated this right)

Supporting Facts (Briefly describe facts you consider important to Claim 3. State what happened briefly and clearly, in your own words. Do not cite legal authority or argument. Describe exactly what each defendant, by name, did to violate the right alleged in Claim 3.):

In violation of Alaskas Goodtime Statutes, where I was given a flat sentence, the Alaska Court System acting outside the scope of law permitted the Alaska parole Board to: (1) usurp authority over my goodtime credits and furthermore, ignoring A.S. 33.16.200, permitted the Parole board to change and extend my judicially given sentence beyond its maximum term.

Claim 4: On or about August of 2013-2019, my civil right to due process; equal protection; cruel and unusual punishment; and the right to Habeas Corpus was violated by The Alaska U.S. District Court, by denying the Writ of Habeas Corpus where no judicial entity was with legal competent jurisdiction over my persons had authority to legally detain me. The Courts ignored the law, and the writs of Habeas Corpus and denied my Constitutional rights to unfettered rights to my constitutional liberties where no law permitted the parole board to have jurisdictions over liberties
